BLACK BANNERS WAVED OVER JEWISH PARADE

Peculiar Procession in New York's Ghetto to Express Grief for Russian Dead.

(By Associated Press,)

NEW YORK, November 23.—One of the most peculiar and impressive demonstrations which has ever taken place in the popular East Side was held to-day when several thousand Jewish men and women, with bared heads and lips moving in prayer marched in a long process on through the Ghetto as a sign of ther grief at the massacres of their people and a protest against the horror of their condition in Russia. Following the parade a benefit performance was given in the Thalia Theatre, on the Bowery, for the benefit of the Jews in Russia who have suffered in the recent outbreaks. Black banners waved over the procession, which was headed by a band playing dirges. Spectaiors on the sidewalks joined with the marchers in signing the mountail chants. The march lasted two boars.

The performance at the theatre, a new play, created for this occasion, was entitled "The Rioters of Kishineff." It portrayed the horrors of the recent massacres in Russia.

WINCHESTER, VA., November 23.—
Terrified by the insistent demands of white-caps, Robert Lower, of this county, to-day moved away without telling any one where he had gone with his family. For some time past the man has received threatening letters and his home near Kernstown has been bombarded with stones. Saturday night a gang of men drove up to his house, threw rocks against it, smashing the window glass and then fred revolvers, the bullets passing through the windows and narrowly missing himself and family. After a ferce fusilade and shouts of vengeance, the gang left.

Lowery does not know how to account for the attacks, He has a wife and five children. The county officers are on a search for the culprits.

minute later those on deck heard the cries of Janssen, and in the flashes of lightning saw the two men slashing at each other with their sheath knives.
Three sallors ran up the rathins and found Janssen clinging to the yard almost unconscious from a knife wound in his breast. They took him to the deck and then returned for Huelatto, who was at
